CHEAPER GAS FOR BARRE

The Gas Company started out to furnish gas to its customers for all domestic purposes at a price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet, with a discount of 25 cents per one thousand feet on all bills that are paid by the 10th count of 25 cents per one thousand feet on all bills that are paid by the 10th of each month for gas consumed the previous month.

The Company adopted the policy from its start to reduce the price of gas as the increase of its business would permit, and in accordance with this policy, and of the generous support given by the citizens, we wish to announce that on and after June 1st, 1905, and until further notice, the price of gas to the ordinary consumer will be reduced 10 cents per one thousand feet, making the net price $1.15 per one thousand feet if the bills are paid by the 10th of each month for all gas consumed the previous month, and for those consuming gas in large quantities the following graduated scale has been adopted, and the discounts are made from the established price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet:

Any amt. up to and includ'g 3000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 35c, net price $1.15 Over 3000 up to and includ'g 5000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 40c, net price 1.10 Over 5000 up to and includ'g 10000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 45c, net price, 1.05 Over 10000 up to and includ'g 20000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 50c, net price, 1.00 Over 20000 up to and includ'g 30000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 55c, net price, 95 Over 30000 up to and includ'g 50000 cub. ft. per month, disc't 65c, net price, .85

And the Company wish further to announce that after June 1st, 1905, all gas bills that are not paid by the 10th of the month for all gas used during the previous month will be collected at the established price of $1.50 per one thousand cubic feet.

There is no city anywhere the size of Barre, and but very few larger cities in New England, that sell gas at so low a rate.

Papers have been received in Rutland, granting an increase from $12 to $24 a month to Capt. Edward Bowman, of that city, who died recently. The application was made some time before Captain Bowman's death and the widow gets the benefit of it.

The Rev. Dr. Edward T. Fairbanks, librarian of the Atheneum at St. Johnsbury, and for twenty-eight years pastor of the South Congregational church, will deliver the sermon before the graduating class of St. Johnsbury Academy, Sunday June 11. Sunday, June 11.

Mr. McCarty, of Poultney, former owner of Hotel Poultney, was seriously injured Tuesday evening by his horse becoming frightened at an automobile passing it. The horse jumped over a hydrant, throwing its owner out. The animal stepped back, injuring one of the driver's sides, shoulders, and hands. It is thought that no bones are broken, but an internal hemorrhage is feared.

Ray, the five years old son of Gny Albee of East Hardwick came very near death by drowning last Saturday morning. The little shaver was standing on the end of the sewer box that runs out into the mill pond, while his older companion was some distance away and out of sight cutting a fish pole. The boy slipped into the water, and his attempts to regain the bank only forced him out into deeper water. One of A. R. Montgomery's boys saw a hat floating in the supervision of Fred Morgan, who is a stockholder and will run the creamery. point and attracted by that discovered the perilous position of the child. He hastily informed his father and the lat-ter rushed down from his store and sprang into the pond, rescuing Roy from drowning. He was in about six feet of water, and would have been beyond human help in a few seconds more.

Barnard Creamery at Last.

The benefit to be derived from The St. Johnsbury Atheneum and S. creamery located in Barnard village has been discussed pro and con for some Years. A number have started in with a biography of St. Jean de Crevecceur, that end in view, but for one reason or the biography of St. Jean de Crevecoeur, the French consul general at New York in the early days of this country and for whom the town of St. Johnsbury was named. Mr. Todd has found the beok full of interesting bits of early history, with extract from letters of General Lafayette and Ethan Allen. The book was written by a great grandson of the distinguished Frenchman.

Nearly Drowned.

That end in view, but for one reason or another have given it up, but a meeting of a number of citizens recently held, a company was formed to push the matter through. The company is to be called and known as the Silver Lake Creamery Co. of Barnard and consists of the following members: Wm. S. Davis, P. B. Hadley, Fred Morgan, Augustus Hadley, Lewis DuBois, Jerome Morgan, Dr. Hubbard, J. H. Ward and R. L. Colton, all of Barnard. They have bought the old Chamberlain carriage bought the old Chamberlain carriage shop and torn it down and will erect on the site a new building suitable for the purpose. Everything will be new throughout and up-to-date and the creamery will be run on the principle, "Live and let live."
